ABOUT THE CLINIC

At the Department of Internal Medicine and Geriatrics at Värnamo Hospital, they treat patients in need of acute or planned internal medical care.

The department is the largest at Värnamo Hospital, bringing together multiple medical specialties under one roof. There is various inpatient units specializing in stroke, acute geriatric care (GAVA), endocrinology, neurology, pulmonology, gastroenterology, nephrology, hematology, and cardiology. The facilities are well-designed and modern, with a strong focus on patient-centered care. You will work alongside both experienced colleagues and new team members, all highly engaged in their work. The department includes a dialysis unit, an internal medicine outpatient clinic, and a geriatric outpatient clinic.

With approximately 230 employees, they strive to foster engagement and involvement among the staff, ensuring professional growth and equal, high-quality care for patients.

Region Jönköpings län aims to provide a high quality of life in an attractive region. Their core responsibilities include public health, healthcare, dentistry, and regional development. As the county's largest employer, they have around 10,000 employees in over a hundred professions. Värnamo Hospital, one of the county's hospitals within Region Jönköpings län, offers a welcoming and collaborative environment with a broad range of specialties and strong medical outcomes. Quality and teamwork are our key principles.

For several years, hospitals in the Jönköping County Region have ranked among the top in Dagens Medicin's annual list of Sweden's best hospitals, and Värnamo Hospital is no exception!

VÄRNAMO

SWEDEN

Värnamo Hospital – One of Sweden’s Largest Regional Hospitals

Värnamo Hospital is one of three hospitals in Region Jönköpings län, serving approximately 85,000 residents across the municipalities of Gislaved, Gnosjö, Vaggeryd, and Värnamo.

The hospital provides specialized care—both planned and emergency—for conditions that cannot be diagnosed or treated at primary care centers.

With around 230 hospital beds, Värnamo Hospital is large enough to offer a wide range of specialties while remaining small enough to provide a friendly and collaborative work environment. They have several newly renovated inpatient wards, a modern dialysis unit, and a state-of-the-art ambulance intake. The operating and intensive care departments have also recently been updated.

Värnamo Hospital has extensive experience in welcoming internationally trained physicians, with many success stories of professionals and their families settling here.

Living in Värnamo means experiencing small-town life with convenience. Daily life there is easy! The area has a strong entrepreneurial spirit, fostering new business ideas, startups, culture, and collaboration.

In 2023, Värnamo was proudly named both Sweden’s Outdoor Municipality and Sweden’s Cultural Municipality. It is a pleasant mid-sized city with approximately 34,000 residents.
