This dynamic, research-driven environment emphasizes continuous improvement and patient-centered care, making it a leading hub for healthcare advancement in Europe.

Västra Götaland

Sweden

Västra Götaland is a diverse and dynamic region in western Sweden, home to over 1.8 million people. It is a place that offers an excellent blend of urban vibrancy and natural beauty, with Gothenburg, Trollhättan, and Borås as its key cities. These cities form the heart of the Sahlgrenska University Hospital network, with its three major sites providing comprehensive healthcare services to the entire region.

Gothenburg, Sweden's second-largest city, is a bustling urban center known for its cultural offerings, world-class dining, and thriving tech industry. It offers a perfect balance of professional opportunities and a high quality of life.

Trollhättan, a charming city known for its innovation and engineering industry, is located just a short distance from Gothenburg and offers a peaceful, family-friendly environment.

Borås, famous for its textile industry and creative scene, adds a unique charm to the region with its beautiful parks, museums, and vibrant community.

Living in Västra Götaland means enjoying the best of both worlds: the professional opportunities of working at one of Europe's largest healthcare institutions and the peaceful, scenic surroundings of one of Sweden's most attractive regions. Whether you enjoy the coastal beauty of Gothenburg, the innovation of Trollhättan, or the cultural richness of Borås, Västra Götaland offers a fulfilling lifestyle and exciting career prospects in healthcare.
